

From: Ryan Leigland
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 1:02pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The proposed Microsoft settlement (Civil Action No. 98-1232 (TPJ)) is flawed because it grants no rights to open source software, which is generally acknowledged to be the main competitor to Microsoft. Any proposal that does not give those rights is destined to fail.